what people say

"The best sports presenter in Asia and among the best in the world. He inspired a whole generation of Indian youngsters to follow sports other than cricket. He deserves a lot of credit for the popularity of the Premier League and Formula 1 in Asia today." Karnik Shah, Founder@ Prime Foods

"Thank you for hosting at our Asia Tour 2022 in Singapore. Feedback from our guests and employees are overwhelmingly positive; many of them find you very entertaining and engaging, and you definitely made the event incredible. Again, thank you for participating in our Asia Tour 2022 Gala Night. We look forward to working with you again in the future." Suresh Letchmanan - Managing Director - BVB Asia Pacific

The Premier League have utilised John's excellent presenting skills at two recent special events. The first required him to act as MC and host at a VIP event in Hong Kong that the PL had undertaken around its Barclays Asia Trophy. John's easy-going, slick and professional approach meant the on-stage element to the event was a huge success and led to excellent feedback from all involved. More recently he hosted and fronted a live Q&A, at an event the Premier League hosted in the Houses of Parliament with 150 guests including the Home Secretary Theresa May, 75 Ministers and MPs, the Metropolitan Police, football clubs and corporate partners. John brought the whole event together in the professional manner everyone knows him for, bringing the best out of the panel and helping promote an important strand of our work to a key audience." Tim Vine, Head of Public Affairs, Premier League

"John was without doubt the number one Sports Anchor/Presenter and Emcee within the Sports media industry and corporate circuit in Asia. He is one of the finest hosts and emcees for sporting and/or corporate events; his ability to deliver to the client as well as the audience is second to none and I would highly recommend John for any event whether formal or informal." Alison Tait, Company Director, Premier Events & Media
